

Player	$	Column4	Colu	Notes
Jonathan Taylor	$9,300	IND@JAX 0:IND		Fully Motivated - JM's point: Won't play entire game in blowout scenario so using a Jag bring-back is sharp
Alvin Kamara	$8,300	NO@ATL 0:INO		Fully Motivated - If ownership stays in 6-8% range I simply must get to 2-3x. Only concern is lack of targets
Nick Chubb	$7,900	CIN@CLE 0:CLE		Rib injury in meaningless game
Dalvin Cook	$7,800	CHI@MIN 0:MIN		Fully capable of smashing on any given week. "Playing for Dad" narrative in play
Aaron Jones	$7,300	GB@DET 0:GB
Najee Harris	$7,200	PIT@BAL 0:PIT		Fully Motivated - Good matchup. Showed ceiling last week. Ravens better vs run than pass but Najee catches, too
David Montgomery	$6,800	CHI@MIN 0:CHI		Getting so much volume and I'm assuming they'd like to end season with a win
Damien Harris	$6,700	NE@MIA 0:INE		Highly Motivated but does have injury issues that would benefit from rest
Rashaad Penny	$6,500	SEA@ARI 0:SEA		Slate smasher twice now. Not someone I will be fading
Cordarrelle Patterson	$6,400	NO@ATL 0:IATL		Just hasn't been the same. Looks slower and role is different. I guess his body wore out. I know the feeling
James Conner	$6,300	SEA@ARI 0:ARI		Highly Motivated - Edmonds out and they need a W
AJ Dillon	$6,200	GB@DET 0:GB		Big decision point here. Upside is pretty big if they give him alpha role. We simply don't know
Saquon Barkley	$6,100	WAS@NYG 0:NYG		Splitting snaps with JAG Booker on terrible offense
Devin Singletary	$6,000	NYJ@BUF 0:BUF		Highly Motivated - Smash matchup of the season. Falling short of 3x would be pretty big upset
Eli Mitchell	$6,000	SF@LAR 0:SF		Highly Motivated - Volume and TD upside vs matchup. Ceiling is there but chances of reaching it decreased a little
Sony Michel	$6,000	SF@LAR 0:SF		Fully Motivated - Great spot for voluminous role. I could see Akers vulturing a TD to give team a feel-good vibe tho
D'Andre Swift	$5,900	GB@DET 0:DET		Good value on FanDuel
Rhamondre Stevenson	$5,900	NE@MIA 0:INE		Highly Motivated - Keep close eye on Damien Harris status. This could be THE play
Antonio Gibson	$5,800	WAS@NYG 0:WAS		Not really sure what to do with Gibson so I'll likely end up leaving him alone except for 1-2 correlations with WFT DST
D'Onta Foreman	$5,700	TEN@HOU 0:TEN		If game script goes according to Vegas, this is a great price for player that could hit 100/2
Kareem Hunt	$5,600	CIN@CLE 0:CLE
Nyheim Hines	$5,500	IND@JAX 0:IND
Jaret Patterson	$5,300	WAS@NYG 0:WAS		Only if Gibson sits
Ke'Shawn Vaughn	$5,300	CAR@TB 0:TB		He'll be in my pool. TB is a bit of a mystery though. I like him better than Lev
Samaje Perine	$5,300	CIN@CLE 0:CIN		He should get plenty of touches and he's a bonafied NFL player.
Jeff Wilson Jr.	$5,300	SF@LAR 0:SF
Dare Ogunbowale	$5,200	IND@JAX 0:JAX
Dontrell Hilliard	$5,200	TEN@HOU 0:TEN
Rex Burkhead	$5,200	TEN@HOU 0:HOU
Devonta Freeman	$5,200	PIT@BAL 0:BAL		Like him on FD. Steelers have been poor vs the run when teams decide to run on them. Ahem...Browns... WTF?
Khalil Herbert	$5,100	CHI@MIN 0:CHI
Chuba Hubbard	$5,100	CAR@TB 0:CAR
Le'Veon Bell	$5,000	CAR@TB 0:TB		Slightly over Vaughn preferred by JM
Duke Johnson	$5,000	NE@MIA 0:MIA
Mike Davis	$5,000	NO@ATL 0:IATL
Michael Carter	$5,000	NYJ@BUF 0:NYJ
Zack Moss	$5,000	NYJ@BUF 0:BUF
Chris Evans	$4,400	CIN@CLE 0:CIN		I agree with MJohnson here. We don't know for sure Perine will get all the touches. If Perine becomes chalk, Evans could be interesting leverage
Patrick Taylor	$4,000	GB@DET 0:GB		Could get a bunch of work but I really have no fucking clue
